The Board of Trustees of the City of Parma Andrew Boyko Scholarship Foundation is honored to offer this scholarship application. The Foundation was established in 2006 in honor of Andrew Boyko, who served the City of Parma for more than 30 years as judge, law director and in many other capacities. The Scholarship is intended to provide financial assistance to high school seniors from the City of Parma wishing to pursue post-secondary education. Many city officials, residents and businesses have given generously to make this scholarship available. We commend you for planning to further your education and encourage you to apply for other financial assistance as well, particularly federal and state aid by completing and submitting the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This form is available at <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>. The Selection Committee will take into consideration each applicant's financial need, special circumstances, character, scholastic record, involvement in community service and commitment to the City of Parma. (Members of the Board of Trustees are not involved in the selection process.) The Foundation will award a total of $7,500 in scholarships. The Selection Committee will award three to five scholarships, with a minimum award of $1,500 for each scholarship. One of these scholarships will be designated for an applicant exhibiting an exceptional commitment to community service.
